

THE LIFE OF A COMMON CIVIL WAR SOLDIER

*Wednesday April 11, 2018
7:00 p.m.
Flower Mound Public Library*

Historian Bruce Ralston dons his uniform as Sgt. Josiah Ballou of the Union Cavalry and will tell stories of his past life as a Civil War soldier. The presentation will include props such as replica weapons and items carried by soldiers. He will cover topics ranging from why we fought, what we ate, and the daily life of a soldier. Also included will be the impact on women, African-Americans and prisoners.

Bruce Ralston is a retired U.S. and AP history teacher. He is currently a Civil War reenactor and living history presenter sharing topics ranging from the background causes of the war to the legacy and aftermath of the war. Registration recommended; call 972.874.6165 or email fmpl@flower-mound.com
